Governance of work-based learning programmes

- 1. Clear framework for regulating roles in the organization and provision of work-based learning programmes
  - Responsibilities, rights and obligations for the parties involved
  - The trainee's status
  - Remuneration and other benefits for the trainee
  - The type of contract-based relationship among the parties involved

Governance of work-based learning programmes

2. National framework for regulating responsibilities in terms of:

- Development of qualification standards
- Development of curriculum and educational plans
- Quality assurance
- Financing and use of funding

Governance of work-based learning programmes

3. Involvement of social partners at national level

- Identification of types of future skills
- Regular update/review of qualification standards
- Governance structures that reflect the division of roles and responsibilities

Governance of work-based learning programmes

4. Facilitating companies' involvement

- Encouraging the employers (the cost-benefits ratio)
- Stimulating creation of job placements for the trainees
- Peculiarities of SMEs that need to be taken into consideration: low number of employees, limited resources, lack of experience
